Description

The Schionning 1160 is generally well regarded for their sailing performance and comfortable cruising capabilities and these catamarans are renowned for their speed, stability, ease of maneuvering and their build quality.

'No Qualms' with her lightweight design and slim hulls is capable of achieving double-digit speeds even in moderate winds. Built with the DuFlex Build System, this ensures a strong and durable structure that can handle various sea conditions. Designed with a comfortable layout, with spacious cabins, well equipped galley and ample storage, long passages are very pleasant onboard.
