Description

If you are looking for a sea change or wanting to move into a very profitable business and fabulous lifestyle, then this could be for you.

Berger Houseboat Holidays owns 8 of the finest houseboats that operate on the Tweed River and manage another 7 fabulous and well maintained houseboats. They also have 3 bbq boats and numerous tender boats included in the business. They operate out of an office at the marina and they have just signed a 5 year lease which comes with the business including berths for every houseboat. These are strictly commercial berths only and there is nowhere else on the Tweed River, where you will find a marina like this. Every berth has its own shore power, water and pump out facility. They also rent an office just down the road where they not only do all their bookings and marketing but also have an inhouse laundry service and a huge amount of spares and everyday items which are needed to help keep the business running seamlessly.

Berger Houseboat Holidays started operating in 1994 and has been operating very successfully over this time. We have figures available to show to serious buyers.

This is definitely a great opportunity to buy a profitable and growing business in the hospitality industry.
